CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

INICODALATIONI DEPORT

This Document contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States, within the meaning of Title 18, Sections 793 and 794, of the U.S. Code, as amended. Its transmission or revelation of its contents to or receipt by an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. The reproduction of this form is prohibited.

COUNTRY Foland  SUBJECT Purges in the Armed Forces DATE DISTR. 11 Mg.  15X1A  DATE OF INFO.  SX1A  PLACE ACQUIRED  25X1X  1. Prior to May-June 1951, military personnel of the Polish Armed Forces were could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpreted being directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, in M. June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as 25X1X  25X1X  25X1X  Cases of arrest and purge heard and read were the followin May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnn), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olexbyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Mossor, Spychalekl and others, all military personnel knew of the allege attempted treason. officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish Rew Officers were arrest Krakow because they refused to take action against local partisans.	hibited.
SUBJECT Purges in the Armed Forces  NO. OF PAGES  1. Prior to May-June 1951, military personnel of the Polish Armed Forces were could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpreted in telligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, in M. June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers were done doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers which were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown the polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleger attempted treason. Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrest affecting the presented when the polish response there are considered attempted treason. Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrest affecting the purging of polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General.
1. Prior to May-June 1951, military personnel of the Polish Armed Forces were could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpreted being directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. A intelligence officer in Katowice, lst Li John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers apart of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish afficers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown that was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwardiness was unknown that the polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish Armed Forwardiness was unknown that were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown that were on a combat readiness basis.)  2. Cases of arrest and purge the heard and read were the following May or June 1951, lst Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regter Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Sypchalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  526X1X officers. In January 1952, four or five Folish KEW officers were arrest.	1. 3050
1. Prior to May-June 1951, military personnel of the Polish Armed Forces were could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpretable being directed against the Polish armed Forces were could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpretable being directed against the Polish Royel friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers in part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish Armed Forces were diness was unknown that the polish Armed Forces was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Armed Forces was a need for officer in the Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  526X1X officers. In January 1952, four or five Folish KEW officers were arrest.	rch 1953
1. Prior to May-June 1951, military personnel of the Polish Armed Forces were could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpretable being directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. A intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, in M. June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers as part of officiel military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish affects as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown that the polish armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown that the polish Armed Forces were armested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Syychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  5268X1X
1. Prior to May-June 1951, military personnel of the Polish Armed Forces were could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpreted being directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers are part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forces which were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown the polish Armed Forces which were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown the polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleger attempted treason.  5268X1X
1. Prior to May-June 1951, military personnel of the Polish Armed Forces were could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpreted against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. At intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, in M. June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers as a part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to be a second of a second purge to be a second of a second purge to liquidate polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleger attempted treason.  5X1X
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to a compact the polish and purge to learn and read were the following May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as to been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to a sundant purge heard and read were the following May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to a compact the polish and purge to learn and read were the following May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to a compact the polish and purge to learn and read were the following May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as to been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish Regime and purge to be polish (finally), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of 1st, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason. Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis.)  2. Cases of arrest and purge heard and read were the following May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrest.
being directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis.)  2. Cases of arrest and purge heard and read were the following May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrest.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin,  June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis.)  2. Cases of arrest and purge heard and read were the following May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt to Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrest.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as to been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish Regime and purge to be polish (finally), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of 1st, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason. Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as to been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to a sundant purge to be a secret and purge to list the polish Regime and purge to outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as to been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to a sundant purge to be a secret and purge to list the polish Regime and purge to outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as to been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to a sundant purge to be a secret and purge to list the polish Regime and purge to outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
could be purged or liquidated for almost anything which could be interpresented directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin,  June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as to been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish Regime and purge to be produced and read were the following May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of 1st Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrest.
being directed against the Polish Regime or Polish-Soviet friendship. As intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin, June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrests.	e and intelligence officer in Katowice, 1st Lt John Skupin,  June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as in been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish Regime and purge to purge to purge to purge to purge to purge to the 9th KBW Regt to purge to purge to purge to purge to purge to the 9th KBW Regt to purge t	ted as June 1951, a secret regulation affecting the purging of Polish officers to part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as a been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish Regime and purge to the great polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleger attempted treason. Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrest.	vor part of official military policy. This regulation stated in effect that Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish Regime and purge to the polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleger attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrest.
Polish Government would no longer purge or liquidate Polish officers as the been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to be a compact readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to be a compact readiness was unknown to be a compact of arrest and purge to be a compact and read were the following May or June 1951, lst Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of 1952, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  26X1X  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.	the been doing, because there was a need for officers in the Polish Armed Forwhich were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to the polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleger attempted treason.  officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.	t had which were on a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to be a combat readiness basis. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to be a combat readiness. (What represented the degree of readiness was unknown to be a combat.)  2. Cases of arrest and purge to be a combat. (Inu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason. Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.	ces
Cases of arrest and purge heard and read were the following May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.	combat
2. Cases of arrest and purge heard and read were the following May or June 1951, lst Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrests.	•
May or June 1951, 1st Lt Kosakowski (fnu), assigned to the 9th KBW Regt of Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrests.
Olsztyn, was arrested for being too outspoken in his pronouncements again Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.
Polish Regime and the Soviets. He received a three-year prison sentence of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of General Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrests	et the of newspaper and military bulletin publicity given the trials of Generals Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrests	Весепа:
Mossor, Spychalski and others, all military personnel knew of the alleged attempted treason.  Officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested.	Tatar.
attempted treason. officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrested	lly 20X1X officers. In January 1952, four or five Polish KBW officers were arrest
Krakow because they refused to take action against local partisans.	d in
	_
	(
	1
	0)
	K

SECRET

#x AIR

Note: Washingto Approved For Release 2001 7047 で CIA 本DP80-00810A000300430001-0

#x NAVY

STATE

#x ARMY

AEC